

New England Plants to Support Pollinators While Discouraging Deer and Ticks

Plant	Tick resistance	Deer resistance	Pollinator appeal
Mountain Mint	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Bee Balm	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Lavender	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Garlic	Repels or Deters	Strong	Moderate
Chives	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Catmint (Nepeta)	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Yarrow	Repels or Deters	Strong	Strong
Bigroot Geranium	Repels or Deters	Strong	Moderate
Butterfly Weed	Unappealing	Strong	Strong
Milkweed	Unappealing	Strong	Strong
Columbine	Unappealing	Strong	Moderate
Blue Starflower	Unappealing	Strong	Moderate
Coneflower	Unappealing	Moderate	Strong
Aster	Unappealing	Moderate	Strong
Black-Eyed Susan	Unappealing	Moderate	Moderate
Wild Lupine	Unappealing	Moderate	Strong

New England Plants to Support Pollinators While Discouraging Deer and Ticks

Coneflower

Yarrow

Blue starflower

Mountain mint

Catmint

Wild lupine

Aster

Bee balm

Chive

Milkweed

Columbine

Bigroot geranium

Black-eyed Susan

Garlic

Lavendar

Butterfly weed

>> Check out our tip guide to reduce ticks while protecting pollinators in your yard: TickFreeNH.org.

